Quiz unit 2

Q1: Read the conversation, then answer questions below:

Interviewer: I'm from Teenage Express magazine. We're doing a survey of teenage shopping habits. Do you mind answering a few questions?

Faisal: Not at all. What do you want to know?

Interviewer: Do you shop online?

Faisal: No, I never shop online.

Interviewer: Why not?

Faisal: I don't trust the security features on the Internet.

Interviewer: What about your friends?

Faisal: Very few shop online or make payments via the computer.

Interviewer: And do you like to buy designer clothes?

Quiz unit 3

Q1: Read the conversation, then answer questions below:

Ali: So, ... What's new?

Badr: I bought myself a computer.

Ali: What kind?

Badr: A laptop. Laptops are friendlier to use and are cheaper than other computers.

Ali: Does it have Internet?

Badr: Not yet. I'm going to install that next week.

Ali: I don't like laptops. I prefer desktops. Desktops are easier to use, especially if you have to write and print a lot. Laptops... you have to recharge them all the time, and their screen is much smaller.

Badr: I don't agree. Laptops are the best. You can surf the Net, send emails, and play games anywhere. You don't have to wait until you get home.

Ali: Well, I still think desktops are more convenient than laptops.

Badr: Yeah, but you can't take one with you.

1. What does Badr say about laptops ?

Q1: Read the text, then answer questions below:

Dear Farah,

I need you to do me a big favor. There's been an emergency, and I have to go to the hospital . Your grandmother fell down the stairs, and I'm afraid she may have a broken hip. Your brother is going to drive me there as soon as he gets home. I don't know how long I'll be there, so I really need your help tonight. I didn't have time to finish preparing the meal, so please make dinner for the family. The chicken is ready—it's in the fridge. Just cook it with some rice. Will you also make a salad? Your father will be home at about 7 o'clock. He's going to be late because he has a meeting after work. Could you also wash Hameed's football uniform? His team has a big game tomorrow. He can't do it because he is taking me to the hospital. I did the rest of the laundry this morning, but I didn't have time to iron your father's clothes for tomorrow. Please do that for me. Thanks, dear. Don't worry. Hameed will call you later to let you know about grandmother's condition. Love, Mom

Q1: Read the conversation, then answer questions below:

Reporter: So, Robert, could you tell us what happened?

Robert: Well, I was delivering a pizza and a bottle of soda to a high-rise apartment building last Friday night when the elevator broke down.

Reporter: So, what did you do?

Robert: I shouted and pushed the alarm button, but no one heard me.

Reporter: Why didn't you just use your cell phone to call someone?

Robert: I wasn't carrying my cell phone. I just forgot it.

Reporter: How long were you in the elevator?

Robert: I was stuck in there for 10 hours.

Reporter: Weren't you nervous and scared?

Robert: Not really. I kept my cool. I ate the pizza and drank the soda. Then I went to sleep.

Reporter: How did you get out?

Robert: Well, finally, some residents called the building manager because the elevator wasn't working. When they got the elevator started, I was sleeping on the floor of the elevator with the empty pizza box.

Q1: Read the passage, then answer questions below:

Michael: What's the most awesome experience you've ever had?

Andrew: Definitely when I went shark diving. Have you ever heard of it?

Michael: No, never.

Andrew: Well, I went shark diving in Gansbaai, South Africa. It's one of the best places in the world to see the great white sharks up close.

Michael: You're out of your mind! You'll never catch me diving in the middle of sharks.

Andrew: It's not like that. You go out on a boat to a place called "Shark Alley," and you go down inside a cage. The people on the boat throw out big pieces of fish tied to a rope in order to attract the sharks. The sharks come up real close, and frequently they knock the cage with their heads.

Michael: Weren't you afraid?

Andrew: To be honest, I was scared to death.
