Read the following story, then answer the questions below

There was a smart boy named Yousef. His Social Studies teacher told him about the history of old Kuwait. He was very interested in the lesson. After school, Yousef went back home and told his grandfather and his uncle about the information he learned at school.

That evening, Yousef played his favourite video game 'The Time Machine'. He put on his VR headset, and, for the first time, he chose to travel to Kuwait in 1960s. Yousef walked around the old houses, and he felt amazed. He saw how people in old Kuwait were co-operative and helpful. Children obeyed and respected the elders. He was happy when he saw how kindly Kuwaitis were in helping the poor.

Kuwaitis used to dive for living and trade with other countries like India. They told stories to their children about their sea trips. They ate fish, rice and fresh vegetables.

After the great time he had in Old Kuwait, Yousef took off the VR headset. He felt very proud of his country, his grandfathers kindness and the Kuwaiti heritage.

	Subject:	Sheikh Abdullah Al-Salem Cultural Centre

Dear Emily,

I'm so excited that you are going to visit Kuwait next week. I want to take you to Sheikh Abdullah Al-Salem Cultural Centre, one of the world's largest complexes.

The Cultural Center has six main buildings. There are four museums: The Space Museum, The Science Museum, The Natural History, and The Arabic Islamic Science Museum. The two other buildings are The Fine Art Centre and the Theatre.

Going to the Cultural Centre is like travelling through time to learn about past and future life. We can learn about the world of dinosaurs that lived on Earth 65 million years ago. We also can see a giant robot, and get to know the latest ways that robotic technology can help people. Moreover, we can see the planets and learn a lot about space.

Around the centre, there is a fantastic open space, where we can sit and relax. Often, there are also outdoor activities. We will have a great time!

Best wishes,
Yasmeen

1- Why is Aunt Yasmeen planning to visit Sheikh Abdullah Al Salem Cultural Centre?

..... because it is one of the world's complexes

2- If you visit the space Museum what can you see there?

..... I can see the planets there

Use your dictionary, look up the meaning of the words 'giant' and 'fantastic' then, write each one in a sentence

1- Giant : We can see giant animals under the sea

2- Fantastic: This is a fantastic car

DO YOU?

Dear Yasmeen,

I'm glad to hear that you're enjoying your time in ~~Kuwait~~ Canada. These days, it is very cold and snowy here in Canada. Last Monday, when I was driving back home, it started to snow heavily. I couldn't see the street (so - or - but) the cars around me, (so - or - but), I stopped the car. First, I called the police and they told me not to open the windows (so - or - but), the doors, and stay inside the car waiting for help. After that, I felt cold, (so - or - but) I put on my hat and my gloves, (and - or - but) wrapped a warm blanket around my knees.

I stayed in my car for two hours, caught in the snowstorm. Finally, a truck driver came (and - so - but) cleared the snow from the road to save me. I thanked him, and went back home. I was tired, (and - or - but) I was happy to get home safely. I hope that I can come to Kuwait soon.

Best wishes,
Yasmeen

Once there was a natural problem. First lightening was here and there. Then heavy rain fell down. There was big amounts of water on the roads. Cars couldn't move. They sank and water covered most of them. It was so dangerous. At the end rain stopped and after an hour we could be safe

Subject: Our visit to the book fair

Dear Amal,

Thanks for your last email. I had a great day yesterday. Aunt Yasmeen, Nasser and I delightedly went to the Book Fair. We wanted to buy some books, but there were so many to choose from!

First, Nasser looked eagerly at a book about football. Next, Aunt Yasmeen showed me a book written by her favourite Kuwaiti writer, Abdulaziz Hussain. Then, she helped me to choose an interesting book. I wanted her help because some books were too easy for me, and others were too difficult or too scary.

After that, we ~~could find Nasser~~. I felt ~~worried~~ ~~looked~~ for him ~~everywhere~~. Finally, I found him buying a book, but it wasn't about football. Nasser bought the book for Amal Yasmeen and then he warmly gave it to her. Amal Yasmeen was very pleased. She deeply thanked him. I have such a kind brother!

Yours,

happily in a little house with his mother and father. Jack was a kind boy. But one day, a horrible giant came to their house. He stole all the family's gold and treasure. Sadly, Jack's father died after this. Then Jack and his mother were very poor.

Jack's mother told him to go to the market and sell their cow. They needed money to buy food. On his way to the market, Jack met a strange man. The man offered Jack five beans for the cow. Jack said no at first. The man told him they were special beans. So Jack gave the man the cow and Jack took the beans. When Jack arrived home, his mother was very angry. Now they had no money and nothing to eat. She threw the beans out of the window.

When Jack woke up in the morning, it was very dark. There was a very tall beanstalk outside his bedroom window. Jack climbed up and up until he got to the top. At the top of the beanstalk, he saw a large castle.

Jack arrived at the castle, he felt hungry and thirsty. He knocked at a very tall but kind woman opened it. Jack asked the woman for some water. She told Jack he could come in. She said her husband was out. Her husband was a giant who ate children. Jack drank his water and ate a delicious biscuit. Then he heard loud footsteps. It was the giant! He could smell Jack and he wanted to eat him. His wife quickly hid Jack in a cold oven.

The giant's wife told the giant that nobody was there. She gave him his dinner. He had twenty whole chickens, five kilos of potatoes and four kilos of carrots! After dinner, the giant counted his gold. Jack could see him. It was Jack's father's gold! The giant fell asleep. Jack quietly got out of the oven. He carefully took the gold from the giant. He ran quickly back to his mother. She was very happy.

ther told him not to climb the beanstalk again. But the next day, Jack hid at the tall beanstalk. He wanted to climb it again.

He went to the castle. The giant's wife opened the door. She told Jack, "My husband's very angry. You stole his gold."

"Yes," said Jack, "but your husband stole that gold from my father."

The giant's wife said she was sorry and asked Jack to come in. Suddenly, they heard loud footsteps again. Jack jumped into the cold oven.

"I can smell a little boy. Where is he?" shouted the giant.

"There's nobody here," said his wife. "Sit down and eat your dinner."

The giant ate his dinner and then his wife brought him a hen. It was Jack's father's hen! The giant stroked the hen gently and it laid an egg. It was not an ordinary egg but a gold egg! The giant soon fell asleep. Jack took the hen and ran home with it.

ay, Jack went back to the castle again. The giant's wife was . But, she liked Jack and she let him in. Again they heard the . Jack jumped into the cold oven. The giant was very angry. "Where's that boy? I can smell him," he shouted. He looked everywhere. He looked under the table, in the cupboards, behind the door and in the pans! But he didn't look in the oven.

His wife gave him his dinner. Then he asked for his harp. It was a gold harp. It played beautiful music by itself. It was Jack's father's harp. Again, the giant fell asleep. Jack carefully took the harp and began to run away. But this time the giant woke up! He ran after Jack. Jack climbed quickly down the beanstalk. He shouted to his mother, "Get the axe!" Jack began to chop and chop. The beanstalk fell down and the giant fell onto the ground. Bang!

Jack and his mother now had all their money back. They were happy and the giant was never going to hurt them again!
