Question 3: (True or False):

Comprehension 1:

Use the information in the passage to answer the questions below.

From Questions (1) to (20), shade in the answer sheet the letter T if the statement is True or F if the statement is False, for every question.

Crash

What's it like to be Crash Coogan? You might think you know him already – the big jock, star of the football team. Huge shoulders, smallish brain. Basically mows down everything in his path, including kids like Penn Webb, the dweeby, puny, button-wearing vegetable-eater who moved onto Crash's block when they were little---and has been a prime target ever since.

But there's more to Crash than the touchdown-scoring kid every 7th grader sees. And it's not the predictable sob story that's supposed to make you feel sorry for the poor bully. It's the story of a kid with overworked parents, an ecology-minded smart-aleck little sister, a crush on an activist cheerleader, and a best buddy named Mike Deluca, who helps Crash pull off hilarious pranks at Webb's expense.

Until one day Mike goes too far, maybe even for Crash, and the football hero has to choose which side he's really on.

1) Crash is the big jock, star of the football team.	T	F
2) In the second line the word mows mean "to cut or to cause to fall".	T	F
3) Penn Webb is the prime target of Crash.	T	F
4) Crash is in the 9 th grade.	T	F
5) Mike Deluca is Crash's enemy.	T	F
6) Mike Deluca, who helps Crash pull off hilarious pranks at Webb's expense.	T	F

Question 3: (True or False) Comprehension: 2

My real name is John. John Coogan. But everybody calls me Crash, even my parents. It started way back when I got my first football helmet for Christmas. I don't really remember this happening but they say that when my uncle Herm's family came over to see our presents, as they were coming through the door I got down into a four point stance, growled, Hut! Hut! Hut! And charged ahead with my brand new helmet. Seems I knocked my cousin Bridget clear back out the door way and onto her butt into a foot of snow they say she bawled bloody murder and refused to come into the house. So uncle Herm finally had to drag his whole family away before they even had a chance to take their coats off.

Like I said personally I don't remember the whole thing but looking back at what I do remember about myself I have to say the story is probably true as far as I can tell I have always been crashing into people, into things, you name it with or without a helmet.

From Questions below shade in the letter Ⓟ if the statement is True or Ⓡ if the statement is False, or every question.

1) It started way back when Crash got his third football helmet for Christmas.	T	F
2) My real name is Crash. But everybody calls me John Coogan.	T	F
3) As uncle Herm's family was coming through the door I got down into a four point stance.	T	F
4) So uncle Herm finally had to drag his whole family away before they even had a chance to take their coats off.	T	F
5) John Coogan has never crashed into people, into things, you name it with or without a helmet.	T	F
