RICK SMITH

I've always loved hats and I've had several collections over the years. I sold my first collection when I was in college. Then, I started collecting hats again in 1975, when I was studying at the university. However, in 1976, I decided to move to London and had to sell my second hat collection because I needed the money. The first time I showed my current collection was when I put a few hats on the wall of my office. My friends and colleagues loved the idea and gave me a few hats of their own. I've collected 362 hats so far and I'm still collecting. I have also made a website where people can admire my hat collection and also sell me their hats, if they like!

ANN MITCHELL

I love bananas! When I was a kid, my parents called me 'Anna Banana'. But it wasn't until I went to Hawaii in 1980 that I really got stuck on bananas and started collecting banana items. Over the years, I've found other items to add to my collection. My friends have also helped me out and today my collection is quite big. I've collected nearly 4,000 banana items!

THE LOST CITY OF THE INCAS

High in the Peruvian Andes, on a mountain called Machu Picchu, lies the Lost City of the Incas, which at one time was the centre of the greatest empire in South America.

The journey to Machu Picchu begins at Cuzco, one of the oldest cities in South America and once the capital city of the Inca Empire. Today you can get to Machu Picchu by train from Cuzco and then continue by bus. For the more adventurous, there's the Inca trail, of course! This three to five-day trek is one of the most popular in South America.

Thick jungle and some of the world's highest mountains surround the mysterious city of Machu Picchu. What makes it so mysterious is that, to this very day, nobody really knows what happened to the people who lived there. Archaeologists have found the skeletons of 173 people and 150 of them were women. However, that discovery didn't help solve the mystery. What's even more amazing is that the Incas managed to build this stone city high up on a mountain top and that the stones fit perfectly together. One thing is certain however. It will be a long time before archaeologists manage to put all the pieces of the puzzle together and solve the mystery of Machu Picchu.

- Where is the Lost City of the Incas? _____
- How can you get to Machu Picchu? _____
- Why is it considered a mysterious city? _____
- How many male skeletons did archaeologists find at Machu Picchu? _____

Read the text below and write T for True or F for False.

Havasu Falls are in the Havasu Canyon next to the Grand Canyon in the southwestern USA. There are actually three waterfalls in the area: Havasu, Mooney and Navajo. The waterfalls are in the Havasupai Indian Reservation, the home of the Havasupai people. 'Havasupai' means 'people of the blue-green waters.'

The best time to visit the falls is in spring, in the months of April and May because the weather is cool, but it is warm enough to swim. Later, in summer, it gets hot and rainy and there can be floods, too. Visitors can camp in a campsite or stay at the Havasu Lodge. But you have to book a room at the Lodge three or four months before you plan to go.

To reach the falls you start at the parking area at Hualapai Hilltop. From there you can walk, ride a horse or fly in a helicopter to Supai village, 13 km away. From Supai village it is about 4 km to Mooney Falls.

You don't have to be an experienced hiker to walk to the falls because the walk is safe, even for beginners. However, you must be very careful because there are many dangerous cliffs. There are also caves to explore on the way. It is a good idea to take water with you and to watch out for rattlesnakes, too.

Whether you walk, ride a horse or take the helicopter, the impressive waterfalls and the peaceful surroundings make this one of the most fascinating places you can visit. It is an unforgettable experience.

1. Havasu is one of the three waterfalls in the Grand Canyon.
2. The months of July and August are not a good time to visit the falls.
3. The Mooney Falls are about 17km from the parking area.
4. The walk to the falls is dangerous for walkers without experience.

E-clothes and much more...

1 It's called ICD+ and it's a denim jacket. It's got a hands-free mobile phone with an Internet connection, a radio, a remote control and a microphone. The ICD+ jacket is, unfortunately, a bit expensive. It's between six and nine hundred dollars! Before you say 'no', just think of all the things it has to offer!

2 Here's another great invention you can wear. Stephan Fitch of the MIT Media Lab has managed to fit a computer into a leather jacket. But where is the screen? It's on the back of the jacket, which means everyone can see it, except you! So, what possible purpose could this jacket serve? Advertising, of course. Anybody out there interested in becoming a 'walking' advertisement? First it was cars, now it's jackets, what's next?

3 Intelligent wool! An Australian company sees a new future for wool. Imagine that you're wearing a 'smart' woollen jumper. It looks and feels just like an ordinary jumper only it can do all sorts of things. For example, you're sitting on the sofa and you want to turn the lights on, but you're too lazy to get up. No problem! Just touch your elbow and the lights will come on!

People don't normally think of rabbits as heroes. Here are two stories that will hopefully change your mind.

Hans Steich of Stuttgart, Germany and his family were asleep in their home one night when two burglars broke in. Gerd, the pet rabbit, who was hiding behind a bookcase jumped and landed with all four feet and sharp teeth on the face of one burglar. When Gerd was finished with the first burglar, he jumped on the other burglar's leg and bit him hard on the leg. The family woke up from all the screaming and immediately called the police. When the police arrived, they discovered that these two burglars were wanted for many other burglaries.

In Devon, England the Gumbley family was asleep in their home when Fido, an eight-month-old pet rabbit, smelled smoke in the middle of the night. Instead of running outside to safety, the rabbit went straight to nine-year-old Megan's room. He started scratching the door until she woke up and realised that the house was on fire. Megan went to her parents' bedroom and everyone managed to get out safely.

1. Gerd was asleep when the burglars broke into the house.
2. Gerd bit the first burglar on the leg.

Mmm... smells good!

What is coffee?

The word 'coffee' comes from the Latin word 'coffea'. Coffee grows on trees or small bushes. The leaves are usually green, but they can also be yellow or even purple.

Who tried coffee first?

It may sound strange, but goats were the first to try coffee. It's true! It happened a long time ago in the country we now know as Ethiopia. A man called Kaldi noticed that some of his goats were more playful than the others. He also noticed that they were eating some unusual red 'berries' that were growing on a bush nearby. Kaldi was a curious man so he tried one, too. Suddenly he didn't feel tired any more. And that's how it all began!

Is it popular?

Today, 107 million people drink coffee every day and that's only in the USA. Most people have at least three cups of coffee a day. Coffee has become a way of life; there are coffee houses on almost every corner. Did you know that the first coffee house opened in London in the 17th century?

How do you take it?

Buying coffee used to be easy. There were only two flavours to choose from. Things are different now and you'll be surprised by how many flavours there are to choose from. Chocolate, French Vanilla, Hazelnut, Cinnamon, Orange, Banana, Creme Caramel, Hawaiian Coconut and more. You can have it hot, cold, black or with milk. The choice is yours!

- Why were some of Kaldi's goats more playful than the others? _____
- What happened to Kaldi when he ate a red 'berry'? _____
- How many cups of coffee do people usually drink a day? _____
- Where did the first coffee house open? _____

Drive-ins or Drive-thrus?

People in the U.S. love getting things fast, and one of the most popular ways to buy things is through a drive-thru. In fact, these days people can do almost anything in a drive-thru. You can go to a drive-thru bank or restaurant, and if you want, you can even get married in a drive-thru!

Earlier, in the 1950s, though, drive-ins were very popular. There are drive-in restaurants, where you park your car and eat in it. Drive-ins became less popular in the 1970s when drive-thrus first appeared. With a drive-thru, you don't even need to stop your car! Who knows what the future of drive-thrus will be. Some day we might be able to have a drive-thru supermarket, or even a hospital!

1. Drive-thrus are popular in the US because people like to get things quickly.
2. In the 50s, drive-thrus were very successful.
3. Drive-thrus made drive-ins less popular.
4. There are even drive-thru hospitals now.

Last summer I went on a trip to Mexico. The country was beautiful and the food was fantastic. However, I will say that some of the food was too unusual. When we were at a small restaurant in Oaxaca, the waiter told us to try the chapulines. I didn't know what they were, but according to him they were very tasty. My brother and I were waiting for our food, and soon the waiter brought our chapulines to the table. They were grasshoppers! My brother didn't even want to look at them. I am more adventurous than he is, so I tasted them. They didn't taste bad at all, in fact they were surprisingly good. They were sour and salty at the same time. I asked the waiter how they cooked them. I never thought they would be so easy to cook. The difficult part is buying the grasshoppers where I live. They don't sell them in supermarkets. Well, I'll just have to go back to Mexico and eat my chapulines there!

- What did the writer find unusual?

- Who was the writer travelling with?

- Who didn't eat the chapulines?

- What did the chapulines taste like?

Dear Len,
Hello! I am so glad you wrote. It was really good to hear from you. What have you been up to? I have some news... I just finished my white-water rafting class! I know, it's crazy, right? Well, Sean told me about this class, and it sounded really interesting. He said that it was the most fun he had ever had, and I completely agree!

The course wasn't very long; it lasted only three weeks. The fee isn't much either. I paid only £55. What's more, you don't have to bring anything with you; they have the equipment and everything you need there. The best part is that you don't need any experience. That was convenient for me, because I had never been on a boat before in my life! The instructors are very good, they know so much about rafting. At the end of the course, you get a certificate that says you can go rafting by yourself!

Anyway, if you want to attend the course too, let me know. If you sign up, I know you'll have a great time!

Yours,
Larry

Any plans for the summer? I've got this great idea. My family and I are going to this campsite for a couple of weeks. It's close to the sea, it's very peaceful and I know you need to relax. We thought that you might like to join us for a few days. After all, you like camping, don't you? What do you think?

The only problem is that we don't know the exact dates we're going to be there. When are you going to take your days off? We'll definitely know next week and I'll let you know. Oh, and because our car has a problem we can all go by bus.

Anyway write back and tell me if you're coming. If not, tell me what your plans are.

Dan Oh, that's right. Well, you have to meet him. I think you two will have lots to talk about. For one, he is a football fan, too.

Steve I like him already! So, what does he look like?

Dan He is a big guy, tall and very muscular. He likes going to the gym a lot.

Steve Oh, now that you mention it, there was a new man at the gym the other day. He was tall and fit, too. Do you think it's him?

Dan Maybe. He did say his gym is near here.

Steve And what is he like?

Dan He is really outgoing and confident, and fun to be with. Everybody instantly liked him.

Steve He sounds nice. I am looking forward to meeting him. Where is he today?

Dan He is in Mr Brown's office. They are discussing a new assignment.

Steve Oh, right. Say, how about going for lunch later? We can invite Mark, too and get to know him better.

Vic Eric, when did you get back?

Eric I got home this morning but I feel like I'm still in Paris.

Vic I'm sure you do. So tell me. You were there for the whole summer. How was it?

Eric Oh, it was great. Actually, I stayed there for about two months. It wasn't very long but still, it was amazing.

Vic You stayed with a French family, right? What were they like?

Eric They were very nice. It was my second time in Paris, so I didn't want to visit the Eiffel Tower or the Louvre again. This time they took me to places that aren't as well-known, and it was great. I saw how French people really spend their time.

Vic Wow, that sounds like fun! Did you eat many different kinds of French food?

Eric Oh yes. The family I stayed with cooked for me every day. We also went to a few really nice restaurants.

Vic How nice! I'd like to visit France, too.

Eric I'd like to go again, but not during the summer.

Vic Well, my problem isn't the time of the year, but the language. I don't speak French very well!

Mark I don't know, Dad. I'd say something like the aeroplane, or the car... We can travel so much faster now using these means of transport!

Ken That's true, I guess. But I think that there are more important things like computers and phones. Especially mobiles, right? I never see you without your mobile. You can't live without it!

Mark That's not true! In fact, we're going camping this weekend, remember? I'm not taking my mobile with me. It will be easy. I don't think I'll have a problem at all without it.

Ken OK, and I will try not to use my computer. The first thing I do when I get home is turn it on and check my e-mails. Well, maybe we could both spend some time away from our favourite gadgets.

Kelly Well, I had to give a report in front of the class. I was really nervous, because I hate talking in front of people like that. At some point when I was talking, someone's mobile started ringing.

Betty Oh, I hate that, it really gets on my nerves when people don't turn off their phones in class.

Kelly Oh, I know! It's really annoying! Anyway, it was ringing and ringing, and no one was turning it off. It was driving me up the wall.

Betty So what did you do?

Kelly I asked the class whose phone it was, and to turn it off. No one did anything!

Betty How rude!

Kelly Yeah, well just wait. I was getting angrier and angrier, until finally, I started shouting at them to turn the phone off. That's when one of my classmates held up my purse, and told me that it was MY mobile that was ringing!

Betty Oh no... that's terrible. Did you apologise?

Kelly Of course I did, but that didn't help. They were really upset with me for shouting at them.

Betty Yeah, you really shouldn't have done that.

Kelly I know, I know. And I also shouldn't leave my mobile on during class!

1.

Liz What did you think of the book?

Anne It was amazing. The plot was great.

Liz It wasn't bad. I liked the part when the ship was sinking and the hero saved the little boy.

Anne I preferred the part where he saves the old man in the water. Did you like the ending?

Liz It was disappointing.

2.

Ted So are you going to Rome to watch the football match?

Brad Of course, I wouldn't miss the Champions League Final. It will be a great game.

Ted Have you booked your tickets yet?

Brad I booked them last month. I'm going to stay in Rome for a week and have a holiday as well.

Ted That sounds like a good idea. You'll be able to do lots of sightseeing.

Brad I'm not sure about that but I'm going to visit my cousin Luca while I'm there. He lives in a small town near Rome. I haven't seen him for years.

Ted It will be a good opportunity for you to catch up with him.

3.

Paul Are you taking part in the art festival?

Ian No, not this year.

Paul Why not?

Ian Well, there is a theme this year, waterfalls. I don't have any paintings with waterfalls.

Paul Why don't you make some? There's still plenty of time.

Ian Well, the thing is, I like painting people, so I've got lots of portraits and stuff, you know.

Paul So, no nature then.

Ian No.

LISTENING TRANSCRIPT

Man 1 So, Mr Williams, why do you think I should hire you?

Man 2 Well Mr Smith, I am a very hard worker.

Man 1 Uh huh, is that why you got fired after only a month in your last job?

Man 2 Actually, I quit that job. I didn't like the money I was getting.

Man 1 I see. What is the longest job you've had?

Man 2 Hmm... I was a call centre agent for about four months. I think that was my longest time in one place. Before that, I worked at a restaurant as a cook for about three months. Oh, and I had a summer job as a lifeguard for a few weeks.

Man 1 The summer is a lot longer than a few weeks, isn't it? Why didn't you last the whole summer?

Man 2 That's a bit funny, actually. I can't swim, you see. I really don't know why they hired me.

Man 1 I don't know why either. It certainly seems that you've had too many jobs and you have never had the time to become a good employee at any of them.

Man 2 That's not true. I am actually a very good employee. I am always on time, I don't sit around doing nothing. I work very hard. I just haven't found a job I like yet.

Man 1 I'm sure that's true. Still, you can understand why I can't hire you, can't you? I really need someone with more experience.

Man 2 Yeah, sure, I understand. Thanks anyway.

Mum So, why did you call again, Suzy?

Daughter I have a huge problem, Mum!

Mum OK, tell me what happened?

Daughter Well, you know I took that cookery course last month, right?

Mum Yes...

Daughter Tonight I'm going to a dinner at a friend's house. I wanted to show them how well I cook now and I told them I'd bring the dessert. I'm making chocolate cake. I'm trying to anyway.

Mum Chocolate cake, eh? So what's the problem?

Daughter I mixed all the ingredients together, but it doesn't taste right. It tastes awful!

Mum OK, tell me what you did. Did you add the cocoa powder?

Daughter Well, I did. I added the cocoa powder and the eggs. Then I whisked them together.

Mum Uh huh, and the butter?

Daughter I melted it and added it, just like the recipe said to do.

Mum Hmm... Do you have enough sugar in it?

Daughter Of course, I put in two cups, just like... oh no!

Mum What happened?

Daughter I can't believe I did this. I didn't put in sugar, I put in salt by accident!

Mum Ha! Ha! That's a simple mistake to make, any cook could do that.

Daughter No wonder it tasted so bad!

LISTENING TRANSCRIPT

Ian What else do we need to do before we leave, John?

John Oh, I don't know. I think we just need to find a nice hotel to stay in.

Ian That's easy, I can do that.

John Wait, I just hope it's not going to be like last time...

Ian What do you mean? The hotel last time was fine. You were unhappy because they didn't have Wi-Fi.

John Of course I wasn't happy. I need to be able to get online!

Ian Why? It's a holiday! Why do you need to use a computer on your holiday?

John Well, I do. And I think we need a place with a nice pool, too.

Ian Why do you want a pool? We're going to be on the beach. You can swim in the sea!

John The sea is dirty, though. And think of all the fish and other sea creatures in it. Do you really want to swim in that?

Ian Don't be silly, there's nothing wrong with swimming in the sea.

John Still, I prefer a pool. And room service. I hope they have good room service.

Ian Are we going to use the room service? I thought we'd be able to try the local restaurants. They are known for their great food.

John Look, I'm sure it's fine, but I want to be able to eat in the room once or twice a day.

Ian Once or twice a day? Do you plan on leaving the hotel room at all?

John Of course. When I go to the pool.

Ian This is going to be a wonderful holiday... (sarcastic)

LISTENING TRANSCRIPTS

1.

Man 1 Hey, Matt. Did you watch TV last night?

Man 2 No, I was too tired. Why?

Man 1 Well, you missed out. There was a great programme.

Man 2 I know; it was the one on food from around the world, right?

Man 1 That was last week. And then a couple of days ago there was a documentary about tropical animals.

Man 2 So what was yesterday's about?

Man 1 Well, it was about people living in areas with extreme weather conditions, like the desert or close to the North Pole.

2.

Man 1 How much would you like to deposit, sir?

Man 2 Two hundred.

Man 1 Alright. That's done. Is there anything else?

Man 2 Yes, can I please change some pounds into dollars?

Man 1 Yes, of course. There is a 3% commission fee.

Man 2 That's OK. Thanks!

3.

Man 1 I am so glad we decided to come here on holiday! The hotel is right on the beach!

Man 2 Yeah, and the weather is fantastic. I love this sun. It will do me some good.

Man 1 I can't wait to go swimming in the sea. The water's so blue!

Man 2 And we'll get to do all the water sports we like so much.

4.

Woman 1 What was the book like?

Woman 2 Well, it wasn't a biography, like I thought.

Woman 1 No? How strange. It certainly sounds like it.

Woman 2 I know, but it was a novel. The characters were realistic and there was a lot of adventure, but I didn't like it very much.

Woman 1 Why not?

Woman 2 Well, I'm more into science fiction.
